

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

A Swan Song.

I have met the sun on the purple hill,
I have seen the drift of the wild sea-foam,
I have watched the grey of a twilight still;
And now I go home.

I have loved a maid with the love of man,
I have made my joy in the thick lush grass,
I have played my part while the swift sands ran;
And now let me pass.

I have drained the cup of the regal vine,
I have loved my friend, I have fought my foe,
I have seen the night and the cool stars shine;
And now I must go.

I have joyed in the full, strong pulse of youth,
I have sung my song, I have made my quest,
I have known the false, I have learned the true,
And now I shall rest.

I have thanked the gods for the boon of life,
I have known the worst and the best of all,
I have fought my fight in the fiercest strife;
And now the gods call.

Madam De Willard.

The part of Madame de Willard in the spectacular musical comedy, "Professor Napoleon," which the Blues are giving at the Academy of Music next week, will be taken by Mrs. C. L. Walker. Mrs. Walker has decided to retire from the stage, and will be sure to carry through admirably any part that she may undertake. She also has charge of the automobile girls and the chauffeurs, who have a very pretty dance.

A search was made throughout Richmond to get a girl who could take the part of Elsie.

Elsie is a country girl who has just come to college, and this comedy role requires a person of no mean ability. The very girl has been secured in the person of Miss Lucy Tatum.

Miss Tatum possesses a pure soprano voice, and is already well-known in local theatrical circles. Her ready wit at the rehearsals keeps all the participants convulsed with laughter.

It is rumored that Mr. H. C. Boschen is taking the part of Professor Napoleon in the big musical extravaganza of that name, which the Blues are presenting next week.

Madden—Wilder.

Mr. and Mrs. Durant H. Wilder have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Beulah, to Colonel John Boykin Madden, the ceremony to take place Tuesday evening, November 7th, at 8 o'clock, in Grove Avenue Baptist Church, this city.

On Wednesday Miss Matilda Foster Jones, of Belleville, Ontario, Canada, was married to Mr. Richard De Butts, of Greensboro, N. C.

Mr. De Butts, though now a resident of North Carolina, is an old line Virginian on both sides. Through the De Butts connections he is related to the Dulanses, the Herberts and many other well known families of Loudoun and Fauquier counties. His mother was Miss Fanny Snyder, of Halifax, and his maternal line runs unbroken to Indian Pocahontas. His maternal grandfather was Richard Logan, a leading member of the Legislature 35 years ago. Some local interest attaches to this wedding through the fact that Mr. De Butts is a nephew of Mrs. Caslie Harrison, of this city. Miss Jones, who is of English descent, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Foster Jones.

The ceremony was performed in St. John's Church, Belleville. The bride's brother acted as best man. Mr. and Mrs. De Butts went directly from the church to the train and started on a honeymoon trip which will include stops at Toronto, New York and Washington. They will reside in Greensboro, N. C.

A DEATH BED.

By JAMES ALDRICH.

James Aldrich was born in Suffolk county, New York, in 1810. He died in 1856. He early took up a mercantile career, but at twenty-six abandoned business for literature. In 1846 he established the "Literary Gazette." Poe pointed out the striking resemblance of this poem to one by Hood on the same subject.

HER suffering ended with the day,
Yet lived she at its close,
And breathed the long, long night away
In statue-like repose.

But when the sun in all his state
Illumed the eastern skies,
She passed through Glory's morning gate
And walked in Paradise!

SPLENDID TRIBUTE OF MRS. STONEWALL JACKSON

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHARLOTTE, N. C., Oct. 26.—In an interview given out last evening, Mrs. Stonewall Jackson, widow of the great Confederate general, gave the following remarkable tribute to the President and Mrs. Roosevelt:

"I had been honored in being placed at the head of a delegation of ladies to receive Mrs. Roosevelt, and when I was presented to Her Excellency, I was both surprised and overwhelmed at the warmth and exuberance of his greeting. He expressed so much admiration for my husband, and so much joy at meeting his wife and holding my hand so tenderly and yet reverently, that my heart was deeply touched.

"I am sure the President is all right—a large-hearted, good and great man. His noble tributes to Generals Lee and Jackson proved that he is of the true metal.

"The President's wife made as favorable an impression upon the ladies as any first lady of the land could, being cultured and gracious, womanly and responsive to all the eager attentions showered upon her."
